

International EATA- Colloquium, 2012-10-27,

Esslingen/N: (region of Stuttgart) Germany

Script and the contribution of Transactional Analysis to a healthy development of children and young people.

All CTAs, PTSTAs and TSTAs are invited to participate!

Programme

9.30	Arrival
10.00	Welcoming by the President of the Education Section
10.15	„The Resilience Cycle: TA for positive growth and healthy script formation' Rosemary Napper, TSTA-E and Trudi Newton, TSTA-E, UK
11.30	Pause
11.45	Promoting a healthy development of children and young people -the educational work of transactional analysts in kindergarten and school Agnès le Guernic, TSTA-E, Fr
12.45	Lunch
13.45	Healthy protection in an unhealthy environment- Transactional psychotherapy with the individual child Dr. Gudrun Jecht-Hennig, TSTA, D
14.45	Pause
15.00	Work in small groups
16.00	Conclusions
16.30 ending

- Place: Landesakademie Esslingen, Steinbeisstr. 1, 73730 Esslingen, 49 (0)711/930701-0
- Homepage: <http://lehrerfortbildung-bw.de/lak/es/>

Chairpersons of the day: Gundel Beck-Neumann, PTSTA-E and Anne Huschens, PTSTA-E from the Education Section

EATA offers special international Colloquia as a platform to strengthen professionalism; internationalism; and the development of new theories, models and methods.
The presentations will be translated.

Participants pay for translation and snacks/ soft drinks
Fee: 30 Euros, to be payed in Esslingen (cash!)

Please register by Email: eata@gmx.com

Name:

Adress:

TA-Certification:

Overnight stay (single bed room) full board (74,50 Euro) (cash!)

Stay for the day (lunch 12 Euro) (cash!)

For further information please contact Anne Huschens, a.huschens@z.zgs.de